

Popular Society Couple United in Marriage

Stewart C. Sharp and Miss Eliza Lockhart Marry at Methodist Church Parsonage

Many friends were surprised Tuesday night when it became known that Stewart C. Sharp and Miss Eliza Lockhart had been united in marriage at the Methodist church parsonage at 9 o'clock, the Rev. J. L. Clark officiating. The only attendants were Miss Elizabeth McCoun and Claude Killpatrick.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple motored to Winchester, where they took a train for Atlanta, Ga. While on their honeymoon they will visit the groom's sister, Mrs. J. B. Mencham at Moultrie, Ga.

Although it had been known for some time they were quite devoted, the wedding coming at this time, was quite a surprise to their many friends. The marriage of this popular couple is of unusual interest, both the bride and groom being prominent in social, religious and business activities in this community.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Lockhart, and is a beautiful young lady, charming in manner and with a disposition that has endeared her to everyone being so fortunate as to have her acquaintance.

The groom is the only son of John R. Sharp, is assistant postmaster at the local office and is a most excellent young gentleman of sterling quality and exemplary habits.

They expect to be gone about ten days and upon their return will go to housekeeping at the home of the groom's father on High street.

It is with genuine pleasure that we join countless friends in extending heartiest congratulations and best wishes to this popular and deserving young couple.

MEETING POSTPONED

The business men's meeting, scheduled to be held at the Delicous Cafe Wednesday evening was called off on account of the illness of several of the promoters. The meeting, however, will be held in the near future, and an announcement of same will be made in these columns.

HOW THE BUSINESS GROWS

The Ford business has increased to such proportions that the Ford Motor Company is compelled to give their attention to the upkeep of their own machines.

FIRE DAMAGES COUNTRY HOME

The residence of Mrs. Caswell Prewitt, about five miles from this city caught on fire Tuesday but slight damage was done. The fire started in the attic and the origin is unknown. H. C. Prewitt and family occupied the home and quick discovery of the flames prevented a heavy loss.

Our prices will be based on a very small percent. of profit, and one price to all. But if you do not settle your account at the expiration of thirty days we will have to add 8 per cent. interest to it. We appreciate your trade and will treat you right, but times have changed and we will all have to change with them. We hesitated a long time before taking this step, but owing to prevailing conditions we find this method imperative.

Mrs. Moses was 69 years old, and is survived by three sons, Rabbi Alfred G. Moses, of Mobile; J. Garfield Moses, of New York; Fred Moses, of Louisville, and four daughters, Misses Beatrice and Octavia Moses, of Louisville; Mrs. Edward D. Loehman, of El Paso, and Mrs. S. M. Newmeyer, of this city. Mrs. Moses is well known here, having frequently been a guest in the Newmeyer home, and had only recently concluded a visit of several weeks to her daughter, Mrs. Newmeyer.

FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES

The entire stock of whiskey stored in the old McBrayer warehouses near this city, consisting of 1100 barrels of fine old Bourbon will be bottled and disposed of to the retail druggists to be sold for medicinal purposes only. The whiskey is the property of the Sunny Brook Distilleries and the work of bottling began today, a large force being employed by Manager Leahy, as the bottling must be completed in six weeks.

"FLU AGAIN RAGING IN THIS CITY AND COUNTY

The dreaded influenza is again raging in Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county, hundreds of cases being reported in every section. The disease does not appear to be as severe a form as in the fall of 1918, but every precaution should be used to prevent the spread. All physicians have been kept busy night and day for the past few days and in most instances, the disease has been checked before the development of pneumonia.

FORGER RELEASED

Ted Black, of Huntington, charged with forgery, was arrested in this city several days ago by Chief of Police J. C. Tipton. Huntington authorities were notified and Detective Rose was sent here for the man. A local friend of Black's made good the amount of the forged checks and the young man was released.

NEPHEW ILL

W. A. Samuels received a message this morning that his nephew, Charles Miller, was critically ill of influenza at his home in Huntington. Mr. Samuels left at noon to attend his bedside.

SELLS COTTAGE

W. Hoffman Wood sold Tuesday for J. W. Langston his modern cottage on Hoff avenue to Mrs. Walker Turpin. The price paid was $3,750, and possession will be given March 1.

Trotzky was lucky in one way. He got out of New York before the landlords began raising the rents.

MAKING A NEW SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE

Changing cabinet members is quite an important event—even in Washington. These photos show the cabinet change when Secretary Houston became secretary of treasury and Edwin T. Meredith of Iowa, was made secretary of agriculture. Chief Clerk R. M. Reese is administering the oath of office to Secretary Meredith. Below is a "close-up" of Secretaries Houston and Meredith.

MENEFEE COUNTY ACTIVE

Menefee county, with its new pipe line and extension to the present drilling field, is rapidly becoming one of the most important of the pools in Eastern Kentucky. The pipe line, completed last week by the Cumberland Pipe Line Company, is ready to run oil from the twenty pumping wells in the field. Operators are busy putting up extra tankage, erecting pumping machines and additional power to pump the oil to the common carrier pipe lines.

Three wells ranging in production from 75 to 100 barrels were completed in the field last week, increasing active interest. An average production of 500 barrels daily will be run from the Menefee pool within a few days.

R. A. Chiles, prominent oil operator of Eastern Kentucky, with headquarters in Mt. Sterling, writes that the Menefee county production is looking good with prospects for heavy runs from that field. Many Lexington companies have holdings in this section.

GROOM DISAPPEARS IN FORTUNE MARRIAGE

Mrs. Wm. Hoffman, nee Ida Hinton, courted three hours and a deserted bride at the end of six days, warns young girls "to know the man" before marrying. Wm. Hoffman advertised for a wife, claiming he must wed before Feb. 1 to secure a fortune of $75,000 from his mother's estate. Miss Hinton answered the ad and three hours after meeting Hoffman they were wed. As authorities look for the husband, his bride waits his return at a Canton (O.) hotel.

Some fellows are human golf balls. They are helped out of one hole only to get into another.

BILL PASSED FOR 50-CENT WHISKY TAX

The House, by a vote of 78 to 4, passed the Vance bill, providing for the levying of a tax of 50 cents a gallon on the little more than 38,000,000 gallons of whisky now in bonded warehouses in Kentucky.

It is estimated that the bill, if it becomes a law, will produce between $19,000,000 and $20,000,000 in revenue to the State.

The bill provides that 75 per cent. of this fund is to be applied to the improvement and maintenance of roads and 25 per cent. is to go to the general expenditure fund.

At the outset of the debate on the bill the statement was made that 4,000,000 barrels of whisky have been withdrawn from the State since the Legislature convened. This seems to have the effect of spurring the legislature to action, and the proposed measure was called from the committee and passed by the decisive vote given above.

The bill has an emergency clause, and if passed by the Senate, as it is likely to be, and approved by the Governor, it will become operative at once.

The Smith bill, reorganizing the road department of the State, creating a State Highway Commission and designating a State system of highways, came up for consideration in the House on special orders, and caused considerable discussion. One of the results of the consideration of the provision to make the civil engineer at the University of Kentucky a member of the commission. Approximately forty amendments have been tacked on to the bill.

Fat hens are roosting high today. From the 15-cent limbs they have climbed up to the 28-cent limbs. (28c wholesale now.)

A man simply can't keep from spending money. If a man had a steel trap in his pants pocket he would get his fingers caught about fifty times an hour.

A PERSONAL LETTER

Dear Madam or Sir:
"Checkers" is coming to the Tabb Theatre next Monday, February 23. This is some news to announce. "Checkers" is the most successful racing melodrama of the last twenty-five years on the American stage. Its situations are thrilling and its humor and sentiment have kept millions on the edge of their seats 'twixt laughter and tears.

Now it has been done as a big special film production by William Fox. I've seen it and I know that the screen version not only equals, but excels the stage version. It has all the drama, all the humor and all the love interest, with plenty of thrills as these can be produced only on the screen and staged only by a director like Richard Stanton. The exciting horse race scenes, the train wreck, the fight in the box car, the encounters in Chinatown and the aeroplane flights will hold you spellbound. The beautiful love scenes will enchant you.

You'll enjoy the cast. There are Tom Carrigan as "Checkers" and lovely Jean Acker as Pert Barlow. Then there are Ellen Cassidy, Peggy Worth, Robert Elliott, Tammany Young, Bertram Marburgh and Ed. Sedgwick.

I'll send you a postal card later, that you may not overlook the dates, for I'll promise you that you'll enjoy "Checkers" more than any other feature you've seen in a long, long time.

Yours for the best pictures,
W. B. Small, Manager.

MARRIES AT AUNT'S HOME

The bride is a pretty and attractive young girl and an accomplished musician. Mr. Haddix is a prominent and successful young business man. The couple will make their home in Kenova.

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Feel Right

When your liver goes on strike and you feel a sick headache and bloated stomach on account of poisoning your liver with dangerous colored and healing your system with strong, healing preparations, get out your box of medicine, get your box of NR Tablets and take one right now.

NR will come just as quickly and with it genuine, lasting benefit.

There will be no griping, no gas, no pain or discomfort, no stomach ache. Nature's Remedy (NR) Tablets work promptly and thoroughly, but the action is gentle, mild, and soothing.

NR comes through the action of Nature's Remedy on not only the liver, but on the whole digestive and eliminative system—the stomach, the bowels and even on the kidneys. Stopped up accumulations of waste and body poisons that have been clogging the system are completely cleared out, the over-worked stomach is strengthened and the interrupted work of digestion and assimilation is resumed.

The inactive liver goes to work with new vigor, the bowels are unobstructed, the headache leaves, the "colic," "griping," "want-to-throw-up" feeling disappears, energy, and appetite return and you feel yourself entirely, completely restored.

There is no better proof of the great value of Nature's Remedy for biliousness and constipation than the fact that more than one million NR Tablets are used every day—more than five million boxes sold every year.

If you're not already done so, get a box of Nature's Remedy (NR) Tablets tonight. If your constipation is stubborn or persistent, continue to take one each night for a week or so. Then note how fast your bowels will be as regular as clock work and your stomach in better shape physically, mentally, every way than you've been in many a day. ### FATHER AND SON WEEK

This is "Father and Son Week" the country over.

This week efforts will be made in various ways, to emphasize the importance of bringing into closer relationship the boys and their "dads."

One may wonder that such a thing should be necessary. That a boy and his father should be the best of friends, constant companions, and enjoy an intimacy as tender as that which is supposed to exist between mother and daughter, is in theory at least a matter of common consent.

But unfortunately this is not the case, everywhere.

In the hustle and hurry of modern life the boy and the dad do not see as much of each other as they should.

This condition has been the growth of years. There are some men who do not know anything about the real problems of the boys in their households. There are many boys, who, last of all, consult their fathers about their affairs, their plans or their ambitions.

This is not because the father is less affectionate than he should be nor because the boy has less confidence in or love for his dad than he should have. It is largely because "business" has stepped in between the two and gradually they have drifted apart and in the home life stand at the head of separate "organizations," so to speak.

This, fortunately, is not generally true. There are thousands of homes in America in which the child life, the boy life no less than the girl life, of the family is still considered of prime importance—not that the child should be clothed and fed and sent to school, but that in a larger aspect form an essential factor in the atmosphere of the home.

In those households the boy and the dad are pals. They walk and talk together, get into the out-of-doors together, enjoy the delights of camping, fishing, swimming, together, and in opportune moments discuss those big problems of life which the boy should first talk about with his father.

The Father and Son Week program is designed to impress upon the men of America the fact that the boy life of the nation is its most valuable asset, and that upon the fathers of the land rests the big task of developing that asset to its fullest possible point of usefulness.

If the fathers of America were giving to their boys that degree of attention and study which they bestow upon their business and professional problems there would be no necessity for a Father and Son Week.

Every father knows whether or not he is doing his full duty by his boy. If he is uncertain about it, the father-and-son banquets that will be given this week will help him to reach some definite conclusions on this subject.

There is more joy among Republican partisans for one minor mistake in conducting the war than for all the glorious achievements that led to victory.

GOOD DOPE FOR ADVERTISERS

There was an old pecker and he had a lot of sense;

He started up in business on a dollar-eighty cents.

The dollar for stock and eighty for an ad.

Brought him three lovely dollars in a day, by dad.

Well, he bought more goods and a little more space.

And he played that system with a smile on his face.

The customers looked to his two-by-four.

And soon he had to hustle for a regular store.

Up on the square, where the people pass.

He gobbled up a corner that was all plate glass;

He fixed up the windows with the best that he had.

And he told them all about it in a half-page ad.

He soon had 'em coming and he never quit.

And he wouldn't cut down on his ads one bit.

Well, he's kept things kumpey in the town ever since.

And everybody calls him the Merchant Prince.

Mrs. W. A. Walton of Cincinnati, O., loves horses. During the winter when ice and snow covers the city streets, she leads her auto with anti-skid chains for horses and starts on her mission of mercy. When she finds horse or team in distress, she loans chains to the driver placing their name and number upon her "honest card"—their promise that they will return the chains when they are no longer needed.

HAMILTON ARTS BUILDING TO INCLUDE AUDITORIUM

The new Arts Building at Hamilton College, the Junior College for Women of Transylvania College, will include an auditorium and studios, besides additional classrooms, if the Interchurch World Movement Campaign for funds for Transylvania is successful, it is stated at the college here today. Hamilton College is growing steadily and the need of an auditorium and new classrooms is as much felt as the need for a gymnasium and swimming pool, which also are to be provided.

SUBSTITUTE DRY BILL PROPOSED IN THE SENATE

The substitute prohibition enforcement bill prepared by Statewide Prohibition Federation forces and introduced in the Senate last Monday, was substituted for Senate Bill No. 183, of Senator Clem S. Nunn, of Marion, and favorably reported by the committee to the Senate. It is regarded as likely to pass both Houses without opposition.

Fines from $50 to $300, with imprisonment in jail for 30 to 60 days, are provided for first violations of the new law. Second violations are made a felony, as in the previous bill, if the defendant be an individual, the penalty being one to three years in the penitentiary; if a corporation the fine is $1,000 to $3,000. For third offenses, individuals may be sentenced to the penitentiary for five to ten years, and corporations may be fined not less than $5,000, but is limited in maximum only by the discretion of the jury.

Persons aiding or abetting in the violation of the law are to be deemed principals under the act and punished as such.

One half of one per cent. alcohol is the alcoholic content allowed, with the exception of denatured alcohol, medicinal preparations unfit for beverage purposes, whether patented medicines or not; toilet, medicinal and antiseptic preparations that cannot be used as beverages; flavoring extracts and sirups; vinegars and prepared sweet cider, wine for sacramental purposes, and alcohol for scientific or mechanical purposes.

Fines under the act must be served out at hard labor at the rate of $1 a day, if not paid.

The injunction feature is retained, and in such actions evidence of the general reputation of places complained of is made admissible by the act. Any citizen may prosecute such an action, and provision is made for the prompt trial and summary punishment of any defendant violating such a injunction. Buildings whose owners violate the law, and against which injunctions are granted, may be closed for a year and offending fixtures sold and the proceeds confiscated by the State, after the payment of costs and fees of officers, which are same as in sales of chattels on executions as now provided by law.

The same provision is made as in the bill offered last week for the legal manufacture of liquors not prohibited by the Kentucky law and the same safeguards thrown around such manufacture. This also is true of the prescription of liquors by physicians who run the risk of losing their license to practice by wilful violation of the provisions of the act. Forging of a prescription is made punishable by confinement for sixty days in jail.

Experience in enforcing prohibition laws has demonstrated that a bill providing only for fines does not deter the bootlegger, and that the only thing the moonshiner fears is a penitentiary sentence. Both are provided in the bill the Senate Committee has endorsed. The people of Kentucky want to give prohibition an honest trial. They can do it under the provisions of this bill.

Chairman Hays is again attempting to make the plurality of Republicans in Congress look and act like a majority, but even he can't find a common denominator for this bunch of incompatible factions.

PERSONAL WEALTH

The old nursery jingle which explains that little girls are made of "sugar and spice and all that's nice" and that little boys are made of "rats and snails and puppy dog tails," may perhaps have had some slight foundation in fact. For here comes someone who professes to know what human beings are made of. As quoted in The Survey, the ingredients are something like this:

"The average man of 150 pounds contains constituents equivalent to 100 dozen eggs, enough iron to make four ten-penny nails, fat contents sufficient for 75 candles and a good sized piece of soap, phosphorus for 8,064 boxes of matches, enough hydrogen (in combination) to fill a balloon and carry him above the clouds, and besides all this, ten gallons of water, six teaspoonsful of salt and a bowl of sugar."

Of course, these are only equivalent constituents, but is not the reader reminded of a grocer's and chemist's inventory?

There is an element of comfort in it, too. At present prices the poorest man must be worth a very respectable sum of money.

Among the 171 framers of the next Republican platform Mr. Hays doubtless has included not only the principal scoundrels, but also a fair representation of the Pharisees of the G. O. P.

The Republican party might have survived a special session of Congress, but the people will hardly forgive a repetition of the same dismal failure in the regular session.

Go slow, young feller. You can run into debt, but you have to crawl out.

When a man gets home and takes off a tight shoe and caresses a burning corn he gets some idea of how good it makes a fat woman feel to get a straight front off and rub the welts.

Gentle rules make gentle souls and in all places harsh laws make harsh men. An exacting father makes a deceitful child and a suspicious husband makes an artful wife.

WILSON-LANSING

The Metropolitan journals have had their say about the Wilson-Lansing affair, and under the spell at this time this is a cogitating people. Some say the President was sick in mind and heart over conditions in the Senate and like some peevish husbands, sought relief by unloading wrath on the one closest to him.

Others contend he is yet a sick man who has heard much that never had a beginning and that his temper had reached a boiling temperature, and since Secretary Lansing came next in the Cabinet, he was held responsible for tongue wagging. Then there are others who think there was a real cause and that the Secretary was not in perfect accord with the President on matters pertaining to foreign relations, that in these strenuous times a united Cabinet was needed if political tricks were made to yield to the adoption of the League of Nations. It may be these and more, but as to us we have only words of pity and regret that there should have been this family disturbance.

WELL! WELL!

A report is in circulation that the Republicans, when in convention in Louisville, March 3rd will seek to enlarge their number of delegates to the National Convention in order to have a place for a woman suffrage delegate, and a negro delegate. It is also reported the woman for the place is in the mind of the bosses. Wonder how the other women, as gifted by nature and who have given time and influence consider the course as anticipated. If the women are to have a representative from Kentucky in national affairs wouldn't it be just and courteous to them to pass the matter of selecting a representative up to them. If the women are to speak in national convention it is not short of courtesy that they select their representative and the bosses may be requested "to go way back and sit down."

MARSE HENRY'S BIRTHDAY

On the 16th Marse Henry passed his 80th birthday anniversary. It is useless to say there have been few of his class. As an editor with a full stock of wisdom he is at the head, and few there will be of like greatness to follow. May he live long and retrospectively view the labors of mind, heart and pen, crystallized into the democracy of all the peoples, a chain without a broken link. Ever living through the immortal words delivered at a critical moment and adopted by a unanimous vote of his party in convention "Tariff for revenue only," will bear his mark through the ages to come. Great is Watterson.

And how does this read to you, thinking men, whether for or against the race track? Senator Brock's bill providing a daily license of $2,500, eliminating county and state license. If one license is exclusively state, why not all? We believe the Senators who believe the race course is not for the good of the Commonwealth should exercise the backbone by prohibiting racing entirely. For or against is the way to talk out "in meeting," to put on a prohibition license with weights is only playing "a trick."

"Seldom What They Seem"

Britisher Registers Complaint of Lost Illusions Concerning the Things of Everyday Life.

Early in life I learned that neither Brussels sprouts nor Brussels carpels hailed from the city whence they took their names.

But it is only recently that I have been disillusioned in other matters, remarks a London Answers writer.

When but a schoolboy, buying my three penny "camel hair" paint brush with which to daub my Christmas cards, I used to conjure up visions of Arabs chasing the camel, and plucking him in very much the same way that cook did the chickens, in order to provide the hair with which to make the famous brushes.

But now I find that the home of the camel-hair brush is not on Africa's strands, but in the beech woods of Hampshire and Kent, where the squirrels live, and from whose bushy tails this so-called "camel hair" is extracted.

I remember, too, how my imagination was kindled when I wore my first pair of "porpoise" laces. I imagined that they had once skimmed alongside the great ocean liner, chasing the small fry of the North sea or sporting beneath a Pacific sun. Woe is me when I find that they are nothing more than the hide of Wiltshire porkers, cured and dipped in oil.

The romance of "gray fox" fur is dispelled when I realize that it comes from the silver-gray rabbits of Lincoln.

I am beginning to lose faith. Maybe we do not even get coal from Newcastle after all.

SAILORS EQUAL TO ANYTHING

Men of the United States Navy Have Proved Their Capability in a Number of Ways.

In showing the variety of employment which the sailors of the United States navy may be called upon to perform, the officials who are directing the present "drive" for recruits not only illustrate the freedom from monotony in the life of the modern sailor, but show the great change that has come over the navy since the days of the wooden ships. A typical tale now given out tells how the men of an American war vessel were once called upon to take over and operate a Central American railway, and when the job was finished they turned the line over to its owners in better condition than when it was under the original management. A call for volunteers discovered on the ship sailors capable of running the railroad; but in the old days, when the crews were not recruited from miscellaneous industrial employments, a sailor who could turn his hand at short notice to driving a locomotive would have been difficult to discover.—Exchange.

BRAINS VERSUS BRAUN.

"If a window cleaner is paid $7 a day, what does it profit a man to be a college professor?"

"Well, it's true that the college professor has to exist on a pittance, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that if he and the window cleaner ever met at a social gathering he could make the window cleaner look foolish by discussing the influence of the Victorian era on contemporary literature.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

NICE, INDEED.

Infant Terrible—Mrs. Nextdore said something about you this afternoon, inamma.

Mother—Indeed! What did she say?

I. T.—I heard her tell a caller that there were worse old gossips than you in town, after all.—Boston Evening Transcript.

HONEST EFFORT.

"I observe," said the manuscript collector, "that you write 'laughter' and 'applause' at intervals through your speeches."

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum; "I do so with no pretenses to prophesy, but merely as an evidence of my best intentions."

HER DISCOVERY.

"I am glad I waited until the war ended."

"Why?"

"I've discovered that a lot of young men I thought perfectly splendid in uniform don't look in any civilian clothes like any man I'd want for a husband."

LEAVE WORRIES AT OFFICE

"When I leave my office at night," said a man who has made a reputation for dealing successfully with big problems, according to the New Success, "I take no business worries with me, because I want to come back in the morning at the top of my condition capable of doing the biggest day's work that is possible for me."

"If I were to worry over things at night, if I didn't get recreation and rest, I couldn't do a man's work; I couldn't tackle big propositions."

"No man can take his troubles to bed with him and lie awake thinking of them when he should be getting refreshing sleep to re-enforce him to handle big things the next day. Buoyancy, enthusiasm, mental harmony, are the very essence of efficiency, of creative ability; and worry destroys all of these, so I absolutely refuse to worry in any circumstances."

"I won't waste my energy and my creative power lying awake nights worrying over things I know that I can deal efficiently with them next day, and not till then. Now this is what all men of large vision and practical commonsense do. They don't drag harassing problems home with them after the day's work is done; they lock them in their place of business. Over the door of their home is written in mental characters:

"No worrying here. This is my refreshing station, my repair shop. This is where I equip myself for the next day's run. This is where I renew my spirit, my enthusiasm, my zest. Here is where I brace up my sagging ambition and get ready for tomorrow's run."

The older a man grows the greater his wonder that there were ONLY Ten Commandments.

Some men handle another man's business as recklessly as a baby handles a razor.

PROFITEERING MUST CEASE

Prosecution of profiteers in food and clothing has begun throughout Kentucky by the Fair Price Commission acting in conjunction with the U. S. District Attorneys for the Eastern and Western districts of the State. A fair price list has been established on the most essential food products and a copy of same will be mailed to anyone on request. On February 5 a warrant was issued for C. E. Brett, president of one of the large department stores of Louisville, and his examining trial was set for March 5th, for overcharging 11-4 cents a pound on sugar. On February 8th warrants were issued for store keepers in Beaver Dam, Carlisle, Pulaski and Boston for selling food products by short weight. These were stores in the Eastern and Western coal fields, operated by coal companies found to be overcharging their miners and other customers. On February 11 a warrant was issued for John C. Lewis president of another large department store in Louisville, for overcharging $1.00 per yard for dress goods. The Commission has sought the co-operation of every County Attorney in Kentucky and a great number have now responded and are investigating local conditions in their counties. It is now bringing persuasive measures to bear on shoe dealers whose prices are dropping; has standardized bread at a full 16-ounce for a pound loaf, with a maximum price of 8 cents, and is taking up the milk situation and other matters from which results are expected. Where profits are found to be justified the Commission will not interfere, but it will prosecute all overcharge if Kentucky citizens will make complaint and stand in readiness to swear out warrants for those who are overcharging them.

It's one thing to prate of the dignity of labor, and another thing to dig.

VISUALIZE THE STARVING PEOPLE OF CENTRAL EUROPE

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day.

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores.

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table; moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom; the rich man also died, and was buried.

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

—St. Luke 16: 19-23.

Another parable of Christ worthy of America's study just now, as we wrap ourselves in our garments of wealth and delay in heeding the cry for help, is as follows:

And he spake a parable unto them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully.

And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

And he said, 'This will I do: I will pull down my barns and build greater ones; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

—St. Luke 12: 16-20.

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.

For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink.

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal.

into life eternal. — Manufacturers Record.

SELL IRISH LIBERTY BONDS AT CAPITAL

Selling Irish Liberty Bonds in the United States is a drive that has been under way for some time. These two young women have now invaded Washington, where bonds have been sold, many to federal officials and employees. They are Miss Eileen Quinlan and Miss Amelia Rosser.

It is to be observed that the Lodge plan for "Americanizing" the treaty is more or less satisfactory to all the elements which sympathized with Germany before and during the war.

It is now more than two months since the regular session of the Republican Congress began substituting conversation for legislation.

If a woman's pew in church was on the right side of the church, she used to have the milliner fix the trimming on the left side of her Sunday hat. But a fool man would never think of that.

DEMOCRATS NAME WOMAN DELEGATE

When the Democrats go into presidential convention at San Francisco in June, no doubt women delegates will be seated. However, the Ohio Democrats were the first to name a woman to the place, the honor going to Mrs. A. B. Pike of Lakewood, O., a suburb of Cleveland.

SEE OLD LIBERTY

Treasures of the library of Transylvania College, the oldest educational institution west of the Allegheny Mountains, were displayed to the public on Lincoln's birthday for the first time in many years.

Rare and valuable volumes printed by master craftsmen in the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and many documents and manuscripts relating to pioneer Kentucky history were shown. The oldest book shown was printed in 1544, but there are a number whose title pages show they were published later in the same century, and numerous vellum-bound volumes of the "classics" printed in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

The medical library of the college is said by scholars to be in many respects the most valuable in the world, as it includes volumes for which the book shops and private libraries of Europe have been searched without result, and is rapidly becoming a center for medical research since the books were re-discovered and catalogued recently.

Documents bearing the signatures of Henry Clay, Rafinesque, Michaux and other scientists, as well as of the founders of the College, among whom were Robert Todd, Horace Holley and others, equally as prominent in the beginnings of Kentucky, also were exhibited. Many of these are as legible as the day they were written, some of them previous to 1800.

Lexington societies of all professions have endorsed the movement to house this valuable library in a fire-proof building.

KENTUCKY GOVERNOR BANS HEMP PARTIES

Edward P. Morrow, new governor of Kentucky, has taken a decisive stand to wipe out lynching parties in his commonwealth. A quick movement of state troops last week broke up a mob bent on lynching a negro and in a direct statement Governor Morrow let it be known that "hemp parties" in Kentucky was to be a dead sport from now on.
